

COUNCIL WILL MAKE AN INVESTIGATION INTO ANNEXATION

Committee Will Learn Probable Income Suburbs Will Bring to City—License To Be Collected Through Police Court.

Probably the most important business transacted by City Council at the semi-monthly meeting held Thursday evening was the matter of referring the matter of annexation of Eastland, Oklahoma, Clinton and Plutonia to the Ways and Means Committee with instructions to ascertain from the County Assessor the assessment of this territory and figure the probable income in taxes to the city from this territory. The committee is authorized to employ assistance in obtaining these facts and figures. Pending this investigation, the Law and Ordinance committee is given further time in the preparation of the annexation ordinances.

Mayor Samuel was requested by Council to employ an extra policeman with motorcycle or auto to act as a traffic officer to break up speeding within the city.

The traffic law amendment raising the speed limit within the city to 15 miles per hour in congested districts and 20 miles per hour in the residential districts, was received by Council. Its adoption will be a special order of the next Council meeting.

It was reported to Council that many had failed and refused to obtain proper city licenses for the conduct of their business and Council ordered the proper authorities to collect these licenses by citing all offenders before the City Court.

The special committee named by Council to adjust the controversy which has extended over several years with the Joergers estate in regard to the sidewalk line in East Second street, Sixth ward, reported the adjustment which they had made together with a deed from the Joergers sisters to the disputed property. The report of the committee was received and their actions endorsed. The deed was accepted and ordered to be recorded.

CONVICTED STRIKERS APPEAL SENTENCES

Five Men Convicted in Judge Cochran's Court, Ask an Appeal Of Their Sentences.

Strikers convicted in the United States Court in Covington of interfering with the interstate business of the Andrews Steel Company yesterday filed an appeal from the sentences that sent four of them to the Clark county jail at Winchester, Ky., for eight months, and another to the Covington jail for thirty days.

The men are Carl Brucehaber, Vice President of Lodge 17 of the ironworkers; Jas. (Top) O'Brien, Steve Fackerty, Andy Bogenschultz and John Donsbach, all former employees of the steel company. The indictment against them charged that they halted Albert Yockey, truck driver, as he was taking a steel shipment out of the mill for Cincinnati and caused him to return it undelivered. Donsbach received the thirty days' sentence and the others the eight months.

The appeal for reversal of the sentences contends that the men used only peaceable persuasion in stopping the truckman and claims they were privileged to do that by virtue of the Clayton act favoring labor unions and their members. At the trial Judge Cochran overruled that contention. All the men at present are at liberty under $1,000 bond.

The Vanceburg Sun says, editorially: Supt. Charles Turnipsed of Tollesboro's schools was on hand early Saturday to preside over the Lewis county Teachers' Association, of which he has been chosen president. He is the right man in the right place, and only needs the earnest co-operation of the teachers of the county to bring great and lasting good to the teachers, and through them to their pupils, which will again be reflected in our county life through the school pupils. We earnestly hope our citizens will take a greater interest in their schools the present term than they ever did before.

HEIRS ASK COURT TO REMOVE THE WALLINGFORD EXECUTOR

Petition Filed in County Court by Heirs of Mrs. Kate Wallingford Asking That Bank of Maysville Be Removed As Executor.

Heirs of the late Mrs. Kate Wallingford, represented by Attorneys Moulton, Bettman & Hunt and Allan D. Cole, filed a petition in County Court Friday afternoon asking that court to remove the Bank of Maysville as Executor of the will of the deceased.

The plaintiffs in this action are Buckner A. Wallingford, Anna Wallingford Anderson, Blanch W. Sattler, Helen W. Wise, Buckner W. Anderson, Rebecca A. Perin, Buckner A. Wallingford, Jr., and Nicholas L. Wallingford by their father and next friend, Buckner A. Wallingford.

The petition filed in County Court says in part:

"Plaintiffs state that the last will and testament of the said Kate Wallingford was probated privately in the Mason County Court by defendant without any notice to these plaintiffs of the time or place thereof; that when the probate was accomplished in the manner aforesaid the defendant, its agents and servants endeavored to suppress the publication thereof in the newspapers of the City of Maysville Kentucky, under the false representation that the relatives of said decedent so desired; whereas, in truth these plaintiffs wished said will probated and one of them to-wit Buckner A. Wallingford, speaking for himself and on behalf of the other published in each of the local papers a written communication requesting the publication of said will in said newspapers and thereupon said will was published.

"Plaintiffs further state that the defendant sought to suppress all information concerning the nature and value of said estate by withholding an inventory and appraisal of said estate until after the expiration of time allowed by law in which to file it and refused to file the same until compelled to do so by a rule from this court.

"Plaintiffs state that when said inventory and appraisal was filed no report whatever was made by defendant concerning shortage in the bond account or any of the transactions hereinbefore described nor was the right to recover the same as choses in action listed among the assets of said decedent's estate, by reason whereof these plaintiffs were put to great expense of hiring an expert accountant, who, assisted by their counsel, went through the books of the said Bank of Maysville and unearthed the facts of which defendant all the while had or should have had full and complete information, but failed and refused otherwise to divulge the same.

"Plaintiffs further state that they confronted defendant's personal representative with these facts and demanded in writing that it bring suit against said bank and others to recover the loss which decedent and her estate have sustained through such shortage in her bank account and through the sale of said fifty share of said Bank of Maysville stock to her, but that defendant has failed and refused to collect said assets or to bring suit for the collection of same or any part thereof or in any way to assist in the recovery thereof, but on the contrary has obstructed the same; and had fraudulently withheld the said assets from the payment of an inheritance tax thereon.

"Plaintiffs further state that by reason of the dominating influence of James N. Kehoe, President of the Bank of Maysville and the conditions hereinbefore described and the defendant's consequent failure to collect assets of said estate and its consequent inability and refusal to sue either the Bank of Maysville or James N. Kehoe or Mary Crow or Mike Brown, not only has the position of James N. Kehoe as an individual become incompatible with that of James N. Kehoe, President of the Bank of Maysville as executor, but the position of the Bank of Maysville as an individual has also become antagonistic to and is incompatible with its position as personal representative of Kate Wallingford, deceased, and the defendant has thereby become incapable to discharge its trust.

"Wherefore, plaintiffs pray that the defendant, Bank of Maysville, as executor of Kate Wallingford, deceased, be summoned herein; that it be removed as such personal representative and that this court appoint to fill the vacancy a suitable person as administrator with the will annexed of Kate Wallingford, deceased, and for all proper relief."

LOCAL MAN HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

One day last week while Mr. Carr Politt was en route home from an up river trip in his car, he very narrowly escaped being shot and probably killed by a bullet which hit the car and passed over Mr. Politt's shoulder. The shot was fired just this side of Hanging Rock, Ohio, and Carr thinks it was a stray bullet probably fired by some boy who was hunting in the vicinity.—Lewis County Leader.

MASONIC DAY IS CELEBRATED TODAY AT BEECHWOOD PARK

Many Masons and Their Families from Throughout This Section Gather Here For Big Frolic at Beechwood.

Friday is Masonic Day at Beechwood Park and scores of visiting Masons and their families from throughout this section are expected to spend a part of the day at this beautiful little park. The Maysville lodge of Masons has invited all of the Masonic lodges in Mason and adjoining counties to be represented.

Many will take their lunches under the great beech trees Friday evening but the great mass will go to the park after lunch to enjoy the big features of the day. The chief address is to be made by Hon. G. Allicon Holland, of Lexington, prominent Mason and a member of the Million Dollar Committee of the Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home. In addition to this address there will be a feature picture, "Silas Marner," one of the most wonderful of the old classics. There will also be fireworks and because of the very warm weather, the bathing beach should be especially attractive today.

The day will close with a ball, the music for which will be furnished by a large orchestra.

While Masons and their families are particularly invited, the public will be made welcome. A part of the gate receipts Friday will be donated to the Kentucky Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home at Louisville.

SECRET OF A GOOD DISPOSITION

A woman who carefully safeguards her health benefits her disposition. She will be happy and attractive to all. The world unfortunately is filled with sweet women who are unhappy because they are held back from usefulness by troubles so common among them. Fretfulness and nervousness rapidly destroy good dispositions. Sickness, all-worn-out women cannot make happy homes.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a safeguard of women's health. This is clearly proven by the many letters we are continually publishing in this paper, from women who have been restored to health and happiness by its use after years of suffering. Why don't you try it?

Hon. R. D. Wilson, prominent Vanceburg attorney, was in Maysville Friday on legal business.

WAYLAIED RIVAL AND BEAT HIM UP; SWEET-HEART LOOKS ON

Young Man Fined Fifty Dollars and Given Twenty-five Day Jail Sentence for Assault Upon His Rival Thursday Night

Bryant Johnson, young East End man, was fined fifty dollars and costs and given a twenty-five day jail sentence in Police Court Friday afternoon by Police Judge Harry C. Curran on a charge of a breach of the peace.

Andy Pettit was the chief prosecuting witness. He said that he and a girl friend were walking down Limestone street Thursday evening late when he was met by Bryant Johnson and another boy. He said that the girl who was accompanying him had been Johnson's sweetheart for some time and that when they met, Johnson struck him in the face and knocked him to the sidewalk. Johnson then took him from the girl and marched him out Third street and up the L. & N. railroad where Johnson gave him a sound thrashing.

Johnson went on the stand and told exactly the same story as Pettit had told. Judge Curran asked him why he resorted to this sort of bandit stuff and Johnson replied that the girl who was with Pettit was his girl and he just wanted to give Pettit a good whipping. This reply to the court brought a quick reply from the court which was "Fifty dollars and twenty-five days in jail."

KEEP ALL UNNATURALIZED FOREIGNERS OUT OF LABOR UNIONS

During the steel strike in Pennsylvania a few years ago an army officer stationed in the strike region, in reply to a question by a Congressman, said that he had not been able to find an American citizen among the strikers, and some of the Congressmen who investigated the strike situation, when they returned to Washington told their associates that they had not been able to find among the strikers anybody who could understand the English language and the strikers spoke no language which they could understand.

In the recent attack by Pennsylvania miners upon a West Virginia mine, most of the attacking party were foreigners and a few days there after a large number of women from the Pennsylvania village from which these miners marched went into West Virginia seeking their husbands, but the Associated Press dispatch said that not one of these women could speak the English language.

It was in the light of this condition which has existed for years that the Manufacturers Record years ago urged that no one but American citizens should be permitted to belong to labor unions in this country. The unions seek to use these ignorant foreigners for the purpose of stirring up strife, and are affecting politics by creating the impression of an enormous membership when a very large proportion of the members of some unions are not American citizens and do not know the English language and are simply being used as tools by designing radicals. Once more this situation has become acute and a letter from Mr. Charles E. Hellier, of New York, to this paper says:

"There is one other suggestion which is worthy of consideration and that is the passage of a Federal law prohibiting any alien from belonging to any labor union. I recently visited the Connellsville mine district and found that most of the miners making the trouble there are foreigners and aliens, not American citizens, and they neither read nor speak the English language. They should not be allowed to come over here and make trouble for Americans by joining the labor unions."

This is an issue which the country must face. In the first place it must be recognized that we have too many foreigners of that class in this country. Infinitely better would it be for us to make slower material progress than to make progress by destroying the foundation of our civilization in flooding our land with aliens who are alien in thought, in morals and in political views to everything which has made for the safety and the advancement of the United States.

Our immigration laws need to be made more strict than they are. In effect we are letting foreigners get entrenched in order to destroy our institutions and laws. This class of the off-scourings of Southern Europe should be forever debarred from our shores. General Grant's fear expressed forty years ago against the danger of this foreign immigration, which he thought might destroy our nation, has been tremendously intensified since the time when he uttered that warning. If General Grant could have lived to the present day and seen something of the millions of foreigners who through labor unions help to influence the politics and the business interests of this country adversely, he would realize that his fears might soon be fulfilled.

There should be a Federal law forbidding any alien becoming a member of a labor union, and no alien should be permitted to become an American citizen until he can intelligently read and understand the English language. American-born boys are not allowed to vote until they are 21 years of age but the American boy 12 to 15 years of age has far more knowledge of our country and our Government than millions of aliens who without a knowledge of the English language or of our system of government are permitted to become citizens and to vote with a brief time after reaching our shores. The intelligent, well-educated American boy must wait until he is 21, but the ignorant and debased alien can become an American citizen and vote when he is as ignorant of our country, our laws and our form of government as a Hottentot, and by becoming a member of a labor union even the alien exerts a great power for evil in our political and business life alike.—Manufacturers' Record.

TWO ENEMIES OF MOTORING

There is not much virtue lost in a comparison of speeders and speed trappers. But not all magistrates and municipal courts are the latter any more than automobilists are the former. The incident reported from Harrison of the occupants of a car, themselves plainly in violation of traffic regulations, jeopardizing the life of an officer of the law in the simple discharge of his duty as he conceived it, calls for drastic prosecution.

It is this sort of cases that bring all automobile drivers into dispute with the people, who do not always discriminate among members of classes. It is just as much to the advantage of the automobilist and the duty of the automobile clubs to give fullest aid in having apprehended and prosecuted these outlaw motorists as it is to protect orderly motorists from speeder trap outrage. As a matter of fact, the former class does motoring the greater injustice of the two, for it has a tendency to bring motoring generally into popular disfavor while the latter, while an outrage, outrages but a few.

Running amuck with motor car in streets and on highways is an evil that needs correction. One of the quickest and most effective ways to break up speed trapping is for motorists and motor clubs to do their best to minimize speeding and other unlawful and disorderly use of the exceedingly useful traffic accessory, the automobile.

HYLAN AND HIGHWAYMEN

Judging from the manner in which gunmen and footpads get away with it in New York City, one is apt to feel a little bit skittish about favoring Mayor Hylan for the presidential nomination, even though it be on the Democratic ticket.

HEAVY FIRE LOSS.

There must be, first, a proper national forestry law with adequate provisions for fire protection, says Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the American Forestry Association, in the Journal of the American Bankers' Association. RFPest fires annually destroy 2,000,000 feet of timber, or material enough to build a five-room slides of a road extending from New York to Chicago. With four people to a house, these 100,000 or more buildings would provide a home for nearly one-fourth of our yearly increase in population — a number sufficient to populate a new city each year the size of Cincinnati, New Orleans, Minneapolis, Kansas City, or Seattle.

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeanne Price

New York — How would it seem to decide to throw oneself off Manhattan bridge into oblivion — and then have to come back to one's old job as clerk in a grocery store? Nothing seems quite such an unsensational job, anyway, as that, and fancy having all the customers know about your reckless intention and then see you weighing sugar! A mild, little blond clerk in my grocery did that, but all he got out of the jump to the river 150 feet below was a black eye, so he went back to work. Now, I know there must be some proper way of greeting the situation in my attitude toward him, but I don't know just what it may be, so I just said, "Hello."

There seems to be no more general and human appeal in the world than that of the thermometer. Why people laugh at the universal failing of talking about the weather, I never could understand. Next to knowing what time it is, nothing seems to give so much satisfaction as to declare to an amazed audience that "The thermometer stood at 94 degrees all that afternoon" — especially if you can add "And I worked straight through the day." Visitors at Atlantic City are revelling in the satisfaction this season. The Colgate Company has brought joy to the visiting world by placing there, towering right above the Board Walk, the largest thermometer in the world, always registering correct temperature, and the Colgate application, "You will come to Colgate's by degrees." More than that, they illuminate it at night, so that no contrary optimist can insist "How much cooler it is since the sun has gone down," unless it's true. The Colgate Company goes in for this "biggest in the world" idea, for they put up that sort of clock a few years ago here in New York; but a thermometer! That's ever more intriguing. And if it were not that New York rather looks upon Atlantic City as a summer extension of itself, we would be jealous. This new giant administrator to human curiosity is fifty feet high and six feet wide.

Another disillusion! Hawys had supposed that lion tainers got huge salaries, didn't you? Well, they don't. So keen is the human race about thrills that they can get them for almost nothing but the love of the work. Twenty dollars a week is a fair salary for these people who risk their lives, I am told, and often offers come to menageries and circus managers from men who are willing to work for nothing.

Some of our trolley cars in Greater New York are pretty jerky. We don't use them for anything but short rides and so we don't complain much, but we do notice it. I hadn't realized, though, quite how bad they were until I heard of the marvelous cures they can accomplish. Little Sammie Jackson, aged four, swallowed a quarter the other day. It only went part way down. (I suppose because of the same old joke we've been hearing about money not going so far as it used to) and stuck in Sammie's throat. Doctors took X-rays, and assured themselves it was there, but couldn't figure out how to get it. Finally, his parents decided to take him to the hospital. Lo and behold! on the way there, the trolley car jolted over a particularly jolty crossing, and out came the quarter. So the hospital lost a patient.

The biggest women's club, I should say, in the world, and one of the most sensible and attractive-sounding will be that being organized by business and professional women of this city, but to include membership among women all over the country. There isn't any "cause" back of it. It is going to be carried on for comfort, convenience and enjoyment, just as are men's clubs. A large clubhouse will be built, centrally located, where the members can stop when in town, or live all the year-around, or entertain their friends. A committee of one thousand women is organized to get it started, and it has passed beyond the point of just plans and hopes. Memberships will be limited to 5,000 women, and the leaders in the enterprise have no doubts about reaching that number in its early days. Miss Gertrude Robinson-Smith is president of the board of directors. The American Woman's Association, Inc., is the name of the organization.

About the loveliest thing in our five boroughs right now is the Oriental lotus which is blooming in the Brooklyn Botanic Garden Lake. It is worth knowing about and seeing, for we don't have many opportunities in this country to see that much-storied blossom. The flowers are deep-rose colored, the full-blooming ones being eight inches across.

Carroll McComas, who established herself so firmly in "Miss Lulu Bell" season-before-last, will have the leading role in a Max Marcin production with the interesting title of "Mary, Get Your Hair Cut," this season.

FARM AND HOME NEWS FROM OVER KENTUCKY.

Lyman Threlkeld, a Crittenden county farmer living near Sheridan, this year increased the yield of wheat on his farm at the rate of 125 bushels an acre by using limestone and acid phosphate, he has reported to County Agent J. R. Spencer. A ten-acre field that had been treated by this method yielded a total of 200 bushels of grain whereas it had never yielded more than 75 bushels before.

John McCoy, a Grayson county farmer living near Shrewsbury, who cooperated with the College of Agriculture extension division and County Agent R. W. Searce in conducting a spray demonstration on his orchard, has succeeded in showing farmers in that section of the state the value of controlling fruit diseases and insects. County Agent Searce says. The peaches sold from one tree more than paid for the cost of all spray materials used in treating the entire orchard of more than 100 trees.

A total of 104 Oldham county farmers are enrolled in the "Better Sires—Better Stock" campaign being conducted throughout Kentucky by the College of Agriculture extension division, County Agent Gordon B. Nance says. They have agreed to use nothing but purebred sires in all their breeding work.

Plans are being made to interest more Allen county farmers in dairying, County Agent A. M. Allen says. More than 200 persons interested in the movement recently attended four meetings held in connection with it. The county is especially adapted to dairying, Mr. Allen says.

FALL CAUSED DEATH OF VANCEBURG BOY.

Mystery surrounding the death of a five-year-old boy at General Hospital was cleared Thursday when Coroner D. C. Handley found it was caused by a blood clot carried to the heart. James Stafford, 5, visiting his aunt, Mrs. Mary Chipman, 598 Delta avenue, was reported to have died of a fracture of the left arm.

This seemed so unusual the coroner made an inquiry. He learned the boy fell from an apple tree at his home at Vanceburg, Ky., more than a month ago. The boy suffered a fracture of the arm. At the hospital the bone was reset Wednesday. — Cincinnati Post.

BENJAMIN WEISENBURG, RETIRED MILLER, DIES.

CITIZEN SOLDIERS ARE UNDER INTENSIVE TRAINING.

Louisville. Citizen soldiers, comprising various units of the Kentucky National Guard, are undergoing intensive training on the government reservation at Camp Knox. Guardsmen have been divided into two camps, Camp No. 1 consisting of 55 officers and 600 men, and Camp No. 2, numbering 60 officers and 1,150 men.

DANGER SIGNALS ON ROADS ARE TO BE MAINTAINED.

Frankfort. — The State Highway Commission issued permits to advertising signal concerns to place danger warning at crossings and curves on the state highways at points selected by the department. The concerns are to maintain the signals without expense to the state.

A THOROUGH TEST One To Convince the Most Skeptical Maysville Reader.

The test of time is the test that counts. Doan's Kidney Pills have made their reputation by effective action. The following case is typical. Maysville residents should be convinced.

The testimony is confirmed — the proof complete. Testimony like this cannot be ignored. George H. King, prop. grocery store, 615 East Second street, Maysville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years and have been greatly benefited by them. At times my kidneys got out of order and the secretions passed irregularly. I suffered with a severe aching through the small of my back. When I had one of these attacks I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they never failed to cure the complaint." (Statement given November 15, 1916.)

A TRUE RAT STORY

Auburntown, Tenn., 6-22-22. Stearns Electric Paste Co., Chicago. Dear Sir: Mr. Robert T. Donnell of Auburntown, Tenn., came in our store the other day and wanted something to kill rats. He told me a box of Stearns Electric Paste. And he put some paste on his biscuits that night and the next morning he found fifty-four big rats. And the second night he put out four more biscuits with paste on them, and the second morning he found seventeen more rats, making a total of seventy-one rats in two nights, and there were lots more that he did not find.

This is some big rat tale, but, nevertheless, it is so. Just thought I would write to let you know that your rat paste is good.

Respectfully, KENNEDY BROTHERS.

MINER STRIKES OUT FOURTEEN MEN IN THURSDAY'S GAME

Cardinals Blank Dodgers in Mid-week Game Here — "Dutch" Class Scores A Knock-out With "Pat" Devereaux in Seventh.

The Cardinals dished out their usual defeat to the Winchester Dodgers 5 to 0 in Thursday's game with Minor, the Card's southpaw, hurling one of the most sensational games this season. Some of his unusual feats were allowing three hits in the nine innings but one of these occurring in the first eight innings, striking out three men in the first inning and whiffing 14 during the game. In every frame there was a victim to Miner's slants in the first session he fanned three, in three innings two failed to connect and in the five other frame one batter each was "set down." Never did the visitors reach third and only twice did they reach second.

Our old team mate Ralph Einemann worked for the opposition and but for two innings would have held the Cards to a single run, extra base hits however doing the work.

The Cards scored three in the first on Fortner's double and Connolly's sacrifice. Fortner scoring from second on the out. Class fled to left and Hogan dropped the ball. Dutch pulling up at third. Slayback singled, Class crossing the plate and Scottie taking second on the return throw. Kresser's out and Margerum's hit scored him.

In the sixth, Slayback led off with a home run. Kresser hit through short Margerum forced him at second and tallied on Harding's three-base lick to left. Burman rolled to Glenn and Harding died at the plate.

What the game lacked in life in the eight innings was soon made up in the last of the seventh when Class got a popular decision over Devereaux in a fistie duel. Dutch had tripled to right and rounded third headed for home where the relayed throw stopped him in an effort to get back to third upset Glenn, the visitor's third sacker, who tagged Class for the third out. Class started for his position in right field and was overtaken by Devereaux and Hogan near second base both players antagonizing him, one striking him as he turned around. Whereas Class tripped several good throws upon the map of Devereaux much to the delight of the fans who gave him quite a hand when he came to the dugout. Shaw taking his place in right.

Sport Briefs.

Appearance of Bob Spade and Howard Camnitz on the field Thursday recalls the days when both were big leaguers on opposing teams back in 1908-09. The former was a "Red" and the latter was "Pirate" and the best of their clubs.

Thursday was a great day for pitchers in the B. G. L. Harrison hurled a no hit no run game against Lexington, while Mt. Sterling gathered but five bingles. The Cynthiana-Paris game contained but nine hits. In the three games the Cards got nine of the total 26 hits. The Cards were the only team that played errorless ball.

The conduct of Pat Devereaux on every field in the circuit has reached the point where it is disgusting and he deserved all he got and little more would impress it upon him in the way of fine and suspension from the league. Pat's fits are only momentary for he broke down afterwards and before he left shook hands with Class. For this same kind of trick he was fired off the Lexington club. He ran his bluff once too often.

Of the Cardinals' total 27 putouts Harding and Connolly had all but three. Connolly with 13 and Harding with 11. Class, Margerum and Miner had one each.

All three games in the circuit were shut outs and of small score.

Burdick a recruit umpire from Tollesboro made his debut in the league, umpiring bases until the seventh then taking Spade's place behind the bat calling balls and strikes. Aside from showing his greenness and being kidded by the fans in his first inning he did well and soon assumed the attitude of an old timer. Not a complaint was made on a decision.

SENSATIONAL MAY BE DEVELOPMENTS IN RENAKER CASE

Officers Have New Information in the Winchester Murder Case Which They Have Not Given out—Fox Is Weakening in Jail.

Winchester, Ky., Aug. 17.—Although the tense excitement occasioned by the preliminary hearing of Scobee Hardman, charged with the murder of Leon Renaker, Winchester's "Turkey King" has largely died away, the placid existence of the community is likely at any moment to be disturbed by developments of a most startling nature.

This was disclosed tonight by authorities after detectives and police had spent the entire day in tracing down new clues that have arisen since the arrest of Reese Fox, taken into custody yesterday on a charge of being Hardman's reputed accomplice.

The nature of the clues was not disclosed, but it is said they will lead to evidence of the most damaging nature and that several others may be implicated in the crime.

Hardman and Fox, although confined in the same jail, are not in communication, and every effort is being made to keep them from getting in touch with one another.

Hardman, immaculately dressed, is maintaining the same attitude he has displayed throughout. Debonair, eminently the man of the world, he seems inclined to take things as they come and refuses to discuss his case from any angle, explaining that he will wait until he is placed on trial.

Fox, on the other hand, is restless and smokes cigarettes incessantly. Of the two men, Fox is by far the weaker, and the police will endeavor to wring a confession from him.

Fox, tears in his eyes, again reiterated his innocence when questioned by Chief of Police Mullins this afternoon and said that he would be able to prove an alibi. Attorneys for Hardman admitted that he would base his defense on an alibi plea also.

So far as has been ascertained, no one so far has been able to detect any nervousness on Hardman's part except in the courtroom yesterday when Mrs. Renaker, widow of the murdered man, took the stand.

While Mrs. Renaker was testifying that she had been alone with Hardman, the defendant mopped his forehead with a handkerchief and chewed hard on the stump of a cigar.

The police maintained an attitude of silence on new developments yesterday, although practically admitting that several big surprises were at hand. Whether or not any further arrests are anticipated could not be ascertained.
